

Curriculum Vitae

Manuel Romero Gómez (Sevilla, Spain, 1967) is Full-Professor of Medicine in the University of Seville, Spain. Director of the Digestive Diseases Department Virgen Macarena-Virgen del Rocío University Hospitals. Head of group for translational research in liver diseases at Institute of Biomedicine of Seville. Deputy coordinator of Viral Hepatitis program in the Spanish Network for Research in Digestive and liver diseases (CiberEHD). Director for the evaluation group for chronic diseases in the Andalusian Government. Member of commission 527 from ISCIII. He received the XI Award Javier Benjumea Puigcerver in investigation, Universidad de Sevilla-Focus Abengoa, 2014. He has published more than 340 peer-reviewed papers on gastrointestinal and liver diseases with accumulate impact factor higher than 700 points. He has protected 8 different patents and participated in more than 20 competitive grants for research.